Industrial supply has been increasing toward the previous peak of construction cycle (since 2008), predominantly driven by pre-commitment and concentrated in the Melbourne and Sydney markets.

Occupier demand continues to be well supported by infrastructure projects across Melbourne and Sydney coupled with improved business confidence levels.

Investor interest continues to be in portfolios, large scale assets and assets with long WALEs and high quality lease covenants; however given limited prime grade assets brought to market, secondary assets (particularly with value-add opportunities) have started to attract investors.

Prime yields remain at the historically low levels and the prime to secondary yield spread has narrowed.

Melbourne Industrial Market

- Supply: Supply levels are increasing with 200,428 sqm added to the market as a result pre-commitment in the West and South East precincts

- Demand: Take up levels remain in line with long term averages with most of the absorptions through existing assets

- Rents: Prime rental rates remain stable across Melbourne with some rental growth recorded in the South East; incentive levels remain higher compared to other markets

- Vacancy: Vacancy levels are anticipated to remain high in the near term, underpinned by a combination of elevated backfill options and increased speculative properties likely to come on line throughout 2017

- Supply: Sydney is experiencing rising development activity and developers continue to progress speculative developments as a result of solid leasing demand for new prime space, particularly prior to practical completion.

- Demand: Take up levels continue to be above long term average with tenant preference for new build stock, largely driven by occupiers from wholesale and retail trade industry.

- Rents: Prime rents have been strengthening, with growth led by the Outer West region due to limited larger (10,000 sqm) space options as well as by South Sydney with withdrawals for residential conversions.

- Vacancy: Levels of available prime stock have been decreasing and Sydney is currently experiencing quick letting up periods for prime space.

Supply: Supply levels remain well below the long term average but developers are anticipated to aggressively secure pre-lease deals and speculatively develop more

Demand: Tenant enquiries have begun to improve due to competitive effective rents for prime grade assets with the potential to upgrade facilities and incorporate sustainability features

Rents: Effective rents remain under downward pressure and incentives remain high with further increases

Vacancy: Vacant space has been increasing, dominated by available space in the secondary market as a result of both tenant relocation and corporate activity in the form of the Masters closure and Wesfarmers consolidation
